

Elder Danielle L. Paul's life-verse is Proverbs 3:5-6 which she intentionally strives to do daily. As a proud Greater Harvest Fellowship of Philadelphia, Inc member, she can lead and has a fierce fervor to help guide people into their destinies. She has an innate ability to encourage, uplift, and inspire those she interacts with. She functions in various roles, including leading the New Members program. She holds two master's degrees; a Master's in Organizational Leadership and a Master's in Divinity. She is pursuing her doctorate in Ministry at Jakes Divinity School, pending graduation in May 2024.

Danielle is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of 4 H.I.M. Ministries L.L.C. The company's foundation is based on three pillars: honor, integrity, and the mission of Christ. 4 H.I.M. Ministries L.L.C. was created to place the focus of ministry back on the promises of God through Jesus Christ. Danielle hopes this company will be used as a conduit to launch a broader net demonstrating God's love.

Danielle has published two books; "What's In A Name?" and "Lord God, Teach Me and Guide Me In A New Way." She is the proud mother of three young adults.
